In the first class we will go over all the supplies if you have questions about them, or call me in advance of the class. There are several good online art supply companies that are listed below as an option for purchasing supplies. Ordering from these companies can save you a lot of money.

Watercolor paper- If you don't want to stretch your paper, purchase a watercolor block to paint on, in a size you are comfortable using. Alternately, bring any good sheet of watercolor paper at a 140lb weight, cold-press finish. Good paper brands are Arches, Fabriano, Lana or Winsor Newton. The size of these sheets is usually 22 x 30".

Brushes- It is helpful to have a variety of brushes in different sizes, so bring what you have. At the least have one round tip watercolor brush, Size 6 -10 (Winsor Newton Sceptre is a good brand & not too expensive), or invest in a good Kolinsky Sable watercolor brush. For that type, Escoda is a good brand and not as expensive as some sable brushes can be. This brush is available online through Dakota Brushes.

Paints- Since you have paints from previous classes, just bring what you have. I will make recommendations in the first class for each person, based on what you want to paint. I will be explaining pigments and their properties so you can decide what paints are best for you.

White plastic palette with paint mixing area- Robert Wood or Richeson are two good ones to look at.

Tracing paper, 11 x 14" size or so. This pad should be a transparent, see-through, vellum type paper. Some past students have purchased tracing paper that ended up not being transparent paper, so check it before buying.
