Shaw Festival

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario

September 10–13, 2010

The University of Wisconsin–Madison returns to one of the continent's most delightful towns, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, for the unparalleled theater experience of the Shaw Festival. Join us to experience what New York magazine calls "North America's premier repertory company," and see for yourself why this is our most popular trip every year.

The Shaw Festival is a justifiably famous destination for great theater and the lineup of plays for 2010 is as strong as ever. With the option to choose from an outstanding selection of works by George Bernard Shaw and other playwrights, this is an opportunity for a great weekend of first-rate theater for you and your friends in a beautiful and welcoming location.

On your first night at the festival you'll attend the comedy The Women, by Clare Booth Luce, and on the final night of your visit you'll see Oscar Wilde's comedy The Ideal Husband; but for everything in between you select the plays that you want to see!

Saturday afternoon you can choose either Anton Chekhov's classic The Cherry Orchard, or Mary Chase's beloved comedy Harvey. Later that evening you can decide between attending G.B. Shaw's play about Irish society and politics, John Bull's Other Island, or you may prefer to see the Kurt Weill musical One Touch of Venus. On Sunday afternoon your options are Shaw's comedy The Doctor's Dilemma, or Chekhov's Cherry Orchard in case you didn't get to see it on Saturday. No matter which plays you choose, you really can't go wrong.

And, as always, you can also attend the optional lunchtime one-act play if you would like an extra dose of theater. This season's production is Half an Hour by J.M. Barrie at 11:30 on Saturday morning.

Your weekend package includes our popular educational seminar and, for the first time, a special lunch with members of the Shaw's Repertory Company! You get three nights' luxurious lodging at The Prince of Wales Hotel, and coach transfers to and from the airport with our traditional lunch stop at Niagara Falls on the way to the festival, so all you have to do this weekend is enjoy yourself!

Five plays in all, three of your own choosing, with an option for a sixth, all in one of Canada's most picturesque towns! It really doesn't get much better than this.

Make plans now to join us!

Package Costs: $1499 per person based on double occupancy; plus air. Price includes the best seats in the house at all performances, lodging, lecture and transfers.

Itinerary

Friday September 10

Morning—Fly to Buffalo, NY, and transfer by coach to Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario. Along the way you'll stop for lunch and enjoy the awesome spectacle of Niagara Falls!

Afternoon—Arrive and settle into your room at the elegant The Prince of Wales Hotel. The rest of the day is free for you to relax or explore the beautiful village of Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Evening—Tonight the whole group will attend The Women, by Clare Booth Luce.

Saturday September 11

Morning—Join the group for coffee, danish, and our popular educational seminar. Always informative, this is an opportunity to gain insights into the plays you will attend and the inner workings of the festival itself, while spending a little time getting to know your fellow travelers.

At 11:30 you have the option of attending the Festival's popular one-act play. This year they're performing Half an Hour, by J.M. Barrie.

Afternoon—For your matinee you have a choice between Anton Chekhov's classic The Cherry Orchard, or Mary Chase's unique and heartwarming play Harvey.

Evening—Conclude your day of theater by attending a performance of Shaw's unromantic look at the romance of Ireland, John Bull's Other Island; or, if you prefer, see the Kurt Weill musical One Touch of Venus.

Sunday September 12

Morning—Your morning is unscheduled so you can discover the offerings of this delightful village on Lake Ontario at its most quiet time. Stroll the flower-filled streets and shops, attend church, visit Fort George on the banks of the Niagara River, play a round of golf at North America's oldest course, or relax at the lakeshore park.

Noon—This year we're including a lunch in your program and you'll be joined at your table by members of the Shaw's acting company! This will be a delightful opportunity to spend some personal time with the actors that you've been watching all weekend long.

Afternoon—For your Sunday matinee performance you get to choose between Shaw's comedy The Doctor's Dilemma, or you have another chance to see Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard.

Evening—Tonight you rejoin the entire group for one last piece of outstanding theater with premier seating for Oscar Wilde's intriguing comedy The Ideal Husband.

Monday September 13

This morning the coach will transfer you back to Buffalo for your flight home.

Please join us for a weekend of outstanding theater, good friends, and natural beauty!
