

New York City Holiday Weekend

December 3-6, 2009

Itinerary

Thursday, December 3

Morning-

Travel to New York City and the Hampton Inn Manhattan Times Square North and enjoy a free afternoon on your own.

Evening-

An evening of jazz music and a delicious group dinner welcomes you to the city as we go to Dizzy's Club Coca-Cola in the beautiful Jazz at Lincoln Center complex. This is our third visit to Dizzy's and it is always an evening of great dining and exquisite music in a stylish atmosphere -- a great way to start the weekend!

Friday, December 4

Enjoy an unscheduled morning and afternoon in the city.

Evening-

Tonight you have a ticket on Broadway for one of the most popular holiday stories ever written:

White Christmas. Featuring some of Irving Berlin's most enduring songs, this show includes "Happy Holidays", "Sisters", "How Deep is the Ocean" and, of course, "White Christmas", forming a perfect complement to our holiday weekend.

Saturday, December 5

Morning-

This morning you join the group for our always entertaining and informative educational seminar as you meet with an actor from the musical, White Christmas.

Afternoon-

Enjoy another unscheduled afternoon in the city. Let us know if you desire assistance in obtaining tickets for the Nutcracker Ballet or the Christmas Spectacular and we'll do our best to help.

Evening-

Tonight you hear one of the world's greatest orchestras, The New York Philharmonic, perform three extraordinary musical works by Bela Bartók, Maurice Ravel, and Claude Debussy.

Sunday, December 6

This morning you'll visit one of the world's finest collections of medieval art, architecture and artifacts as we travel to The Cloisters Museum for a private guided tour; and a little before noon you depart the museum for LaGuardia Airport and our mid-afternoon flight home.
