

Honoring Our Common Differences: Creating Inclusive Organizations

8:30 am–4:30 pm, Tuesday, May 17, 2011
Pyle Center, UW-Madison campus

Inclusive organizations create a collaborative environment where all people can experience uncompromising respect, be themselves and contribute their best work. At this workshop you gain insights into:

- how your experiences and assumptions affect your understanding of inclusivity
- how oppression operates at individual and institutional levels
- your privileges and how to use them to enhance inclusivity
- differences between nondiscriminatory and inclusive behaviors
- specific actions to create a more inclusive organization
