

University Senior Guest Auditor—60 and older Students age 60 or older who wish to audit classes (effective May 26, 2000)

The Wisconsin legislature recently amended legislation regarding tuition for Wisconsin residents age 60 and older. If you meet all criteria of the ruling, Wisconsin Statute 36.27(1)(b), you may audit non-participatory lecture courses at no charge, except for the cost of texts or materials. You must first be admitted to UW-Madison as a Guest Student and then enroll for the class you wish to take.

You can audit for free if

- you are 60 years old by the first day of class
- you are a resident of this state as defined by Wisconsin Statute 36.27(2)(e); see criteria below
- the course is lecture only
- space is available in the class
- the instructor approves

Application for admission

- Complete this application and return it to Adult Career and Special Student Services, 21 N. Park St., Madison, WI 53715-1218; fax: 608-265-2901. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
- Within two weeks you should receive an admission letter by mail; this letter provides your UW student ID number and enrollment instructions, including a Web Enrollment Worksheet. Your Invitation to Enroll will be sent by the Registrar via e-mail or U.S. mail and it provides your earliest enrollment time on the first day of classes.

Criteria for Wisconsin residency

An individual must have resided in Wisconsin for at least the 12 months before the beginning of classes.

Some of the factors used in determining residency include:

- having legal ties such as driver's license and voter registration in Wisconsin
- having paid Wisconsin income taxes on all taxable income
- continuous physical presence in Wisconsin

Direct questions about eligibility for residency to the Office of the Registrar's Residency Counselors, 333 East Campus Mall, Madison WI 53715-1384; res4tuition@em.wisc.edu; 608-262-1355, <http://registrar.wisc.edu/students/residence/>. Below is part of the State Statute that defines bona fide residence.

EXTRACT FROM SECTION 36.27(2)(e), WISCONSIN STATUTES OF 2005 RELATING TO EXEMPTION FROM NONRESIDENT TUITION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

In determining bona fide residence at the time of the beginning of any semester or session and for the preceding 12 months the intent of the person to establish and maintain a permanent home in Wisconsin is determinative. In addition to representations by the student, intent may be demonstrated or disproved by factors including, but not limited to, timely filing of a Wisconsin income tax return of a type that only full-year Wisconsin residents may file, voter registration in Wisconsin, motor vehicle registration in Wisconsin, possession of a Wisconsin operator's license, place of employment, self support, involvement in community activities in Wisconsin, physical presence in Wisconsin for at least 12 months preceding the beginning of the semester or session for which the student registers, and, if the student is not a U.S. citizen, possession of a visa that permits indefinite residence in the United States. Notwithstanding par. (a), a student who enters and remains in this state principally to obtain an education is presumed to continue to reside outside this state and such presumption continues in effect until rebutted by clear and convincing evidence of bona fide residence.
